POLITICS DAY BY DAY

Taft's Success in Iowa.

That Taft will carry six of the eleven congressional districts of Iowa and win the State at large, was indicated by the results in the second and fifth districts yesterday. Thus far Senator Cummins has won but two delegates and some of his friends in Des Moines are urging him to withdraw.

The fourth and fifth districts of Maine yesterday instructed their delegates to the state convention for Taft, by rising unanimous vote. In the first Maine district there was an even break between Taft and Roosevelt.

Taft Men Claim Michigan.

From the home of Gov. Osborn of Michigan, one of the "seven governors" who indicated the color to throw his hat into the ring, the Taft headquarters yesterday received the following:

"Since Monday President Taft secured instructed delegates to the national convention from the twelfth congressional district and solid delegations from the state convention from Antrim, Monroe, Mackinac and Cheboygan counties. Also a majority of the delegates from Oceana county. We lost Jackson county."

"The city of Manistee has elected delegates to their county convention. The delegation is almost solid for Taft, which will give him the county, and this makes us practically certain of the ninth district."

"Work in Detroit and Wayne county has been going on splendidly. The organization there feels sure of victory. Up to date we have 382 Taft delegates to the state convention, as against 33 for Roosevelt and 19 doubtful."

"Cheboygan county, which sent a solid Taft delegation, is the home of Speaker Baker, who has been Gov. Osborn's right-hand man during the special sessions of the legislature and before."

Unanimous for Underwood.

As the outcome of democratic primaries in Alabama yesterday all the democratic representatives in Congress were renominated and Underwood was given a solid delegation to the state convention to select delegates to the national convention.

La Follette's Nebraska Tour. Senator La Follette leaves tomorrow for Nebraska on a speech-making tour in advance of the primaries. He hopes to carry that State as he did North Dakota after he will visit other states. His first speech will be at Plattsmouth Friday morning. A special train has been prepared, and the senator will make rear-end throughout the southeastern part of Nebraska, arriving at Falls City for a noonday mass meeting and a night meeting at Lincoln.

Roosevelt to Make Another Trip. Col. Roosevelt takes to the warpath again, leaving New York tonight. The first stop will be at Hinton, W. Va., at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, and throughout the remainder of the day he will make speeches at Charleston, Ashland, and other points. He will then go to the State of West Virginia, in the latter state.

The declaration of Mayor W. O. Head of Louisville that he favors the nomination of Speaker Clark for the presidency, which was followed by similar declarations by State Chairman Henry R. Prentiss, Attorney General Barnett and Judge Charles R. McDowell of Danville, is claimed to make it certain that the state of Kentucky will give its full twenty-six votes for Mr. Clark at the Baltimore convention.

The soundness of Speaker Clark's position on great public questions and his attitude as a progressive democrat, the Clark managers say, are confirmed by this action of the Supreme Court.

George Fred Williams of Boston has been selected to manage the campaign of Speaker Clark. Massachusetts Senator-elect Ollie M. James in Kentucky, and John J. Cornwell of Romney, a leading democrat of West Virginia, in the latter state.
